

Roman town and infrastructures in Hispania

The Roman presence in Hispania lasted some 700 years and the legacy of their time in Spain is still very much visible today. Some of Spain's most important cities were founded by the Romans and there are a number of important archaeological sites and well-preserved Roman ruins. Look at the map. It shows some important Roman towns and the infrastructures the Romans built there.

Look at the map and the key with the symbols and names of each monument. Complete the table with the monuments that we can find in each town.

Town	Roman Monuments
Lucus Augusti (Lugo)
Tarraco (Tarragona)
Segovia
Italica
Emerita Augusta (Mérida)

Roman town and infrastructures in Hispania

Look at the map and write the names of the two most important cities of Hispania. Pay attention to the infrastructures the Romans built there.

--	--

Why do you think they were the most important cities of Hispania?

I think they were the most important cities of Hispania because