

Present Progressive; Present Continuous; Present Gerund.
(Sentences)

JRL10

The present Progressive expresses an activity that is in progress at the moment of speaking.

Often the activity is of a general nature. Something generally in progress this week, this month, this year.

Write the correct word underline as in the example:

Example: I am watching T.V. right now. (Watch)

- 1.- She's _____ the door. (close)
- 2.- They're _____ the exam this month. (Answer)
- 3.- Mary is _____ the kitchen now. (clean)
- 4.- My friends are _____ CD's of Classical Music. (collect)
- 5.- I'm _____ to Susan to the party. (Invite)
- 6.- Angela and Sophia are _____ the radio at night.
- 7.- I can't study this night. My Brother's friends are _____ about their plans. (Talk)
- 8.- My mother fixes the dinner, my sister is _____ T.V. (watch)
- 9.- My friends are _____ because the class is very boring. (sleep)
- 10.- You're _____ a lot of money this morning. (spend)