1 Match the terms to the definitions.

1. birth rate   a When people move between places.

2. mortality rate   b When people arrive in a new country.

3. migration   c The number of people born each year.

4. emigration   d The number of people who die each year.

5. immigration   e When people leave their country.

2 Look at the map and answer the questions.

Population density (people/km^2) in Spain in 2012

- Over 500
- From 151 to 500
- From 51 to 150
- From 25 to 50
- Less than 25

1. Which places in Spain are the most densely populated?

....

2. Name four provinces that have less than 25 people/km^2.

....

3 Write definitions for the terms. TIP: Look at exercise 1

1. birth rate ....

2. mortality rate ....

3. migration ....

4. emigration ....

5. immigration ....

④ True or False?

If you work you are part of the active population. ....

⑤ Name TWO types of people who make up the inactive population.

....

⑥ Fill in the missing letters to make two words that describe the phenomenon of people leaving rural areas other countries.
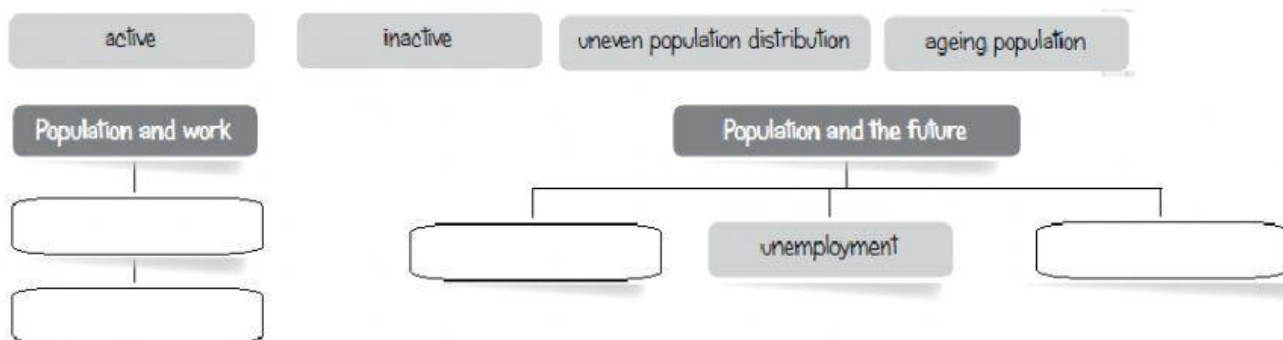

R __ __ A L   E __ __ D __ S

⑦ Complete the sentences. Use the words INTO and OUT OF

1. Emigration is the movement of people   a country.

2. Immigration is the movement of people   a country.

⑧ Match.

| active | inactive | uneven population distribution | ageing population |

| Population and work |

| Population and the future |

| unemployment |

⑨ True or False?

The more babies born in a country during a year, the higher the birth rate is for that country.

The death rate is also known as the obesity rate.