Questions 21–26

For each question, choose the correct answer.

The invention of crisps

Potato crisps were invented by accident in 1853, by a chef called George Crum. He was extremely (21) of his cookery skills, and the expensive hotel where he worked attracted customers who were (22) to eating only the best food.

One evening, a particularly difficult-to-please guest complained about Crum's fried potatoes. 'They're too thick,' he said, 'too soft, and have no flavour.' He (23) that they should be replaced.

The customer's negative (24) made Crum extremely angry, so he decided to annoy the customer. He cut a potato into paper-thin slices, fried the pieces until they were hard, then put far too much salt on them. 'He'll hate them,' Crum thought. But the customer loved them and ordered more.

News of this new snack travelled fast and an absolutely (25) global industry has grown from Crum's invention – even though his fried potatoes were actually (26) to taste disgusting!

MINI TEST

I. Rewrite the words or phrases in bold correctly

0. Tom is having a lot of homework every day. -> has

- 1 Are top musicians studying for many years?
- 2 What's going on? I hope you don't touch my things!
- 3 It's a small business, so each person is doing lots of different jobs.
- 4 Does Christine listen to the radio, or is that the TV I can hear?
- 5 I am usually buying a special ticket each week for the bus because it's cheaper.

II. Underline ten verbs in the wrong tense and rewrite them correctly

0. I'm liking orange juice because it's delicious. -> I like

'One game I am loving is backgammon. You are throwing the dice and then you move your pieces around the board. It is seeming quite easy, but in fact you are needing to be quite careful. When your piece lands on one of the other person's pieces, you are taking it off the board and you send it back to the beginning. You are winning by getting all your pieces to the end and off the board. Some people are preferring chess, but I am not understanding that game. Right now, I wait to have a game with my brother. He does his homework. I usually win, so I think he doesn't want to play a game with me!'
