Unit 4

"Don't worry," said the tailor. "We'll soon be rich. While I was asleep, I had _____ strang e dream. In my dream _____ voice said: "Go to _____ London Bridge.
You'll find treasure there.""

- "Don't be silly," said his wife. "You can't leave everything and go to London."

However, the next day _____ tailor packed his bag and set off to London. It was a long journey, but after four days he arrived in the capital city. He went straight to _____ London Bridge. There were lots of shops on the bridge in those days, so it was a busy place.

The tailor walked up and down the bridge all day, but nothing happened and nobody spoke to him. The next day, as he was walking along the bridge, two boys suddenly ran towards to him. They pushed him and they stole his bag. Then they ran away into the crowd of people.

The tailor sat down on the pavement. "I had very little money when I arrived," he thought. "Now, I haven't got anything."

While he was sitting there, somebody spoke to him. It was one of _____ shopkeepers.
"What are you doing?" he asked.
"I saw you yesterday. You were walking up and down the bridge all day."

The tailor told the shopkeeper about his dream.

-"That's silly," said the shopkeeper and he laughed. "You can't believe dreams.
I had _____ dream last night. In _____ dream I was digging under an old oak tree and I found _____ big box of gold. But it was only a dream. I'm not going to look for the tree."

-"Where was the tree?" asked the tailor.

-"Oh, it was in village called Swaffham," said the shopkeeper. "Swaffham!
I don't even know where it is!"

When he heard his, the tailor jumped up. He said "Thank you!" to the shopkeeper and started the long journey home.

-"Well, where's _____ treasure?" said his wife.

The tailor didn't say anything. He grabbed a spade, ran into the garden and started to dig under _____ old oak tree. It was hard work, but soon the spade hit something. It was _____ wooden box.

The tailor opened _____ box. It was full of gold and silver.

"I walked all the way to London," he said. "But the treasure was here in my own garden!"
