

THEORY	EXERCISES	TRANSLATION
TOO MUCH, TOO MANY, TOO - USES
-I have too much work → Quantifiers express 'more than is good' -My boss talks too much → Too much + uncountable noun -I eat too many sweets → Too many + countable noun -I'm too tired (too + an adjective) → Too + an adjective I'm too-much-tired	Select the correct form: She has walked too much far / too far, she's tired 1. He doesn't eat meat enough/enough meat. 2. How many/much money have brought?	Ha caminado demasiado, está cansada 1. No come suficiente carne 2. ¿Cuánto dinero ha traído?
(NOT) ENOUGH- USES
-I don't drink enough water → Enough before a noun means 'all that is necessary' -He doesn't sleep enough → Enough after a verb with no object -It isn't big enough for a family family → Enough after an adjective/adverb	3. She's too quiet/too much quiet	3. Está demasiado callada
MÉTODO ISO - JMB

THEORY	EXERCISES	TRANSLATION
TOO MUCH, TOO MANY, TOO - USES
-I have too much work → Quantifiers express 'more than is good'	Complete the sentences with too, too much, too many or enough:
-My boss talks too much → Too much + uncountable noun	There are too many students in that class	Hay demasiados alumnos en esa clase
-I eat too many sweets → Too many + countable noun	1. They told me my dog is _____ fat	1. Me han dicho que mi perro está demasiado gordo
-I'm too tired (too + an adjective) → Too + an adjective I'm too -much-tired	2. There were _____ foreigners at the conference	2. Había demasiados extranjeros en la conferencia
(NOT) ENOUGH- USES
-I don't drink enough water → Enough before a noun means 'all that is necessary'	3. I usually drink _____ tea	3. Suelo beber demasiado té
-He doesn't sleep enough → Enough after a verb with no object	4. Do you have _____ paper in your folder?	4. ¿Tienes suficiente papel en tu carpeta?
-It isn't big enough for a family → Enough after an adjective/adverb
MÉTODO ISO - JMB		