

I. Gerunds as Nouns. Identify the gerund. Then label it as subject, object of a verb, or object of a preposition.

1. Do you like fishing? _____
2. Sketching is fun for me. _____
3. Mariah exercises everyday by swimming. _____
4. Of all my interests, I care most about reading. _____
5. Traveling comes second or third on my list of favorites.

6. Have you ever tried drawing? _____
7. Drawing could be a very restful activity. _____
8. Relaxing is important for everyone. _____
9. Some people relax by dancing. _____
10. Everyone needs some rest from work. _____

II. Write a sentence, using each of the following gerunds as the part of the sentence named in parentheses.

1. Swimming (obj. of prep.) _____

2. Traveling (obj. of v.) _____

3. Conversing (subj.) _____

4. Using (obj. of prep.) _____

5. Training (obj. of verb) _____

6. Cleaning (subj.) _____