This ancient country in the Middle East is bordered by Lebanon and Syria in the north and Egypt and Jordan in the south . The north of Israel is snowy and mountainous, while the south is a desert. In the east the Dead Sea (the lowest place on earth) is located. Most people live in the coastal region, where the big city of Tel-Aviv is located.

The common animals in Israel are camels, donkeys and ibexes.

Israel became a Jewish state in 1948 with David Ben Gurion as the first prime minister.
