On Thursday seven people living in the Exchange District showed up on a warm, (1)_____ afternoon to help clean up the (2)_____.

I was picking up trash with a (3)_____ outgoing woman, a little (4)_____ than me, and we chatted about our families and our travels. It was a great chance to get to know one of my neighbours. She had a real sense of (5)_____ for her community.

"I feel (6)_____ when I see all this litter on the streets."

When I saw three young men with cigarettes I walked up to them and said (7)_____.

"You know what happens to the poor baby birds when they eat cigarette butts, don't you?"

(8)_____, the teens listened and (9)_____ threw their cigarettes into the rubbish bin. Many people walking by stopped to thank us for what we were doing. It really felt good to have our efforts recognized.
