The story of Coca-Cola

Probably the best-known drink in the world

What is _____ recognizable object in the world? Could it be a football? Or a Big-Mac? No, the answer _____ a Coca-Cola bottle. The famous Coca-Cola bottle is over 100 years old!

Footballs and big macs _____ certainly part of life for lots of people; but Coca-Cola is now a permanent part of world culture. People know and _____ Coca-Cola all over the world.

It is said that the Coca-Cola bottle is the most recognised object in the world. Hundreds of millions of people _____ a Coke bottle by its shape, even if they cannot see it! And the famous Coca-Cola logo is the most famous logo in the world. Unlike any other famous commercial logo, it has not changed _____ 100 years!

But the story of Coca-Cola is even _____ that. It was in 1886 that John Pemberton, a druggist in Atlanta, Georgia, _____ a new type of syrup, using coca leaves, sugar and cola nuts, plus a few other secret _____! Pemberton sold it to a medicine; and with its coca (the source of cocaine), it must have made people feel good!

Nevertheless, Pemberton's medicine _____ very successful, so he _____ his secret formula to another druggist, Asa Candler. Candler was interested, because he had another idea; he _____ that Pemberton's "medicine" would be better if it was mixed with soda.

Candler _____ thus the man who really invented the drink Coca-Cola. At first, he sold it in _____ drugstore; then he _____ selling the syrup to other drugstores, who used it with their soda fountains. Candler also advertised his new drink, and soon people were going to drugstores just to get a drink of Coca-cola.

Before long, other people _____ interested in the product, including a couple of businessmen who _____ to _____ it in bottles. Candler sold them a licence to bottle the drink, and very quickly the men became millionaires. The famous bottle, with its very distinctive shape, was designed _____ 1916.

During the First World War, American soldiers in Europe began asking for Coca-Cola, so the Coca-cola company began to export to Europe. It _____ so popular with soldiers, that they then _____ start bottling the drink in Europe.

Today, Coca-Cola is made in countries all over the world, including Russia and China; it is the world's _____ popular drink.

As for the famous formula, it is probably the world's most valuable secret! The exact ingredients for making Coca-Cola are only known to a handful of people. And as for the "coca" that was in the original drink, that was eliminated in 1903. It _____ a drug, and too _____. Today's Coca-Cola _____ caffeine, but not cocaine!
