

TURKS AND CAICOS ISLANDS NATIONAL DRESS and NATIONAL COLOURS

The National dress of the Turks and Caicos Islands is made of white and has a rainbow of eight coloured bands. Each colour represents one of the islands or symbols of the country's slogan, 'Beautiful by Nature'.

The men wear a white cotton top and bottom with a coloured band that represents the island they are from on their straw hat.

The women wear a white cotton dress with a coloured sash around their waist that represents the island they are from.

Answer the following questions

1. How many colours are in the national dress?
2. What does the colour red represent?
3. What does the colour orange represent?
4. What does the colour tan represent?
5. What does the colour green represent?
6. What does the colour white represent?
7. What does the colour turquoise represent?
8. What does the colour pink represent?
9. What does the colour yellow represent?

Created by: Roydoya Alleyne