

LANGUAGE LEARNING

ACTIVITY 1:

Mark the mistake

The following sentences ARE WRONG. You have to find the mistakes and correct them.

1. Work in pairs.
2. There are six sentences and each one has a mistake.
3. Find and underline all of them.
4. Explain to your classmate how to correct the sentences.
5. Take turns
6. Check the Grammar Appendix and the Irregular Verbs List to learn the correct forms.

Example:

Wrong sentence:

They have came here on holiday for the last three years.

Explanation:

“Came is the mistake because it is the past form. The Present Perfect tense uses the Past Participle form. We have to change it for come”.

Correct sentence:

SENTENCES:

Dear Mom,

I've just arrived in this wonderful city. It's dirty and very small. I've visited lots of places but I haven't had the time to go out yet. It's hot in here, so there's snow all over the place, you should visit this city someday; I know you love warm weather too!

The food here looks very tasty, so I haven't tried any yet. But, I have tried the local dishes...Hmm! Disgusting!

I haven't taken any city tour because they're very cheap, so maybe next time. For the moment, I think the hotel's pool is a good place. I can't swim, so it's a great idea!

Not many people have visited this place this year. I hope it is the same next year because I love crowded cities and I hope I never come back here again.

I can't wait to be home again. I miss you all.

See you in a long time!

Bye,

Jeff.

Ps: Have you got my last video? I haven't sent it yet.
