TICOS LOVE SPORTS

There are many good opportunities for people of all interests to exercise in Costa Rica. An event that offers one of the best experiences is Costa Rica's International Marathon. It typically takes place in December and it is open to people of different skill levels.

Bike races are also popular sporting events. One of them is the Ruta de los Conquistadores Mountain Bike Race; it is the largest event of its kind in the country. While bike and running races are popular events to attend, the major sport in Costa Rica is soccer and Costa Ricans really love it. The country hosts a semi-professional and amateur soccer season between May and December. Mejengas – which are Sunday morning amateur soccer matches – are a national tradition.
