

Practice Test | Active and Passive voice

1.- Select in each sentence which is the object:

- He sold his house for a good price
- They are discussing the problem
- Does the price include dessert?
- We haven't crossed that road yet
- I won't meet with him tomorrow
- Did the police investigate the theft?

2.- Read the following sentences and classify them into passive or active sentences:

- Many promises were made _____
- The mailman delivered the mail this morning _____
- They are building a new bridge _____
- Our offer will be accepted by Tom _____
- Somebody was following Mary _____
- Mary was being followed by somebody _____

3.- Are these phrases changed correctly?

Active: I didn't beat her.

Passive: She is not beaten by me.

Active: Have you forgotten this entire experience?

Passive: Has this entire experience been forgotten by you?

Active: The tiger was chasing the deer.

Passive: The deer was chased by the tiger.

Practice Test | Active and Passive voice

4.- Transform the sentences into a passive voice:

Active: They haven't punished him.

Passive:

Active: She bought the camera in Japan.

Passive:

Active: Agatha Christie wrote Death on the Nile in 1937.

Passive:

Active: He had made many promises.

Passive:

Active: Carly found your watch under the table.

Passive:

Active: We didn't like you back then.

Passive:

Active: Is the team playing this week?

Passive:

Active: Did the police arrest the wrong man?

Passive:

Active: They are painting my office today.

Passive: