ABSOLUTELY WATCHABLE!

I went to the cinema yesterday to watch 'Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children'. I had low expectations because Tim Burton's latest movies were boring but he finally made a decent, interesting movie that didn't bore me at all!! Eva Green is amazing and thank God Johnny Depp and Helena Bonham Carter were not in this one AGAIN!! The script, the performances, the direction, the special effects, all were decent and enjoyable! Don't get me wrong, it is a fantasy movie. Don't expect to watch a masterpiece, BUT I really liked it. Go with your kids (not very young, I'd say ten and up) and your friends; you can have a good time and watch something interesting. Especially young people will really like this movie!
