

Phrasal verbs - GO

Complete the sentences with after, ahead, away, back, down, down with, without, for, in(to), off, on, our, over or up.

- George went _____ to the cellar to bring a bottle of wine.
- Go _____! I can't talk to you right now I'm very busy.
- My parents have gone _____ for dinner. They'll be back in an hour.
- Jack tried to go _____ the robber but he failed to catch him.
- New apartments are going _____ all over the west coast.
- The bomb went _____ but fortunately no one was seriously injured.
- We can't go _____ with the project without them. They are a crucial part.
- Mr. Stevenson doesn't go much _____ modern architecture.
- When the headmaster entered, the teacher went _____ explaining the new topic.
- Every morning my mum goes _____ my bedroom to say 'Hello'.

- You should go _____ your essay before you hand it in to your teacher.
- Let's go _____ to the hotel. I'm exhausted after five hours of sightseeing.
- Life expectancy has gone _____ from 70 to 73 recently.
- I've been going _____ that job for three months.
- My sister always goes _____ vivid colours of her outfits.
- I was writing an email when the light went _____.
- Yesterday I was late for school because I had to go _____ home to get my maths book.
- There's a party going _____ at my neighbours' house.
- Taxes never seem to go _____. The government exacts more and more from us.
- The local craftwork festival will go _____ as planned next month.
- Half of Martha's class has gone _____ flu.
- How can camels go _____ water?