Hi! My name is Lisa. I am a doctor. I am from Poland, but I work in England at the moment. I work at a very big hospital. I have long shifts. Sometimes, I work from 6 am until 8 pm and sometimes I work the night shift, from 10 pm till 6 am. I live near to the hospital. Sometimes, I drive to work and sometimes I walk. I don't use the public transport.

I give patients their medicine or injections. I check on their progress. I always make notes at the end of my shift. At break times, I usually go to the café and have a coffee and a snack.

To relax, I go to the gym 3 times a week or watch TV five days a week. I am interested in politics and history. I have a boyfriend, Lucas, and we see each other when I have a day off.
