

THE JUDICIARY- TYPES OF COURTS USED IN TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

SECTION 6: State which type of Court deals with the following types of disputes: (10 marks)

1. Granting of bail _____.
2. Criminal cases such as murder or rape _____.
3. Listens to appeals from persons who do not agree with a previous verdict _____.
4. The final court of our land where the judgments are final and irreversible _____.
5. Act as an arbitration (go-between) between employers and employees who wish to settle conflict
_____.
6. Conducts preliminary enquiries into serious criminal offences. _____
7. A panel of three judges who reviews cases tried by a lower court in the country. _____
8. Conducts enquiries into unnatural deaths. _____
9. Serves as the final appellate court for Barbados. _____
10. Serves as the final appellate court for Trinidad and Tobago. _____

THE END!