

ART GALLERIES AND SCIENCE MUSEUMS

1 Read and match.

Art galleries and science museums

Museums are fantastic places to learn about art and science. In science museums, you can find out about the lives of scientists and inventors. You can learn about the history of machines and technology. You can see great inventions. In art galleries, you can find out about the lives of artists. You can see their sculptures, paintings and drawings.

This robot is called Bertl. You can play Rock, paper, scissors with him. You can see Bertl in the Science Museum in London.

This bicycle is also in the Science Museum in London. It's from 1870. Look! It hasn't got pedals or tyres.

This painting is in the National Gallery in London. It's called Tiger in a Tropical Storm. It's by Henri Rousseau.

You can see different versions of this sculpture at museums around the world. It's a giant spider. It's made of metal and it's nine metres tall.

- a - What can you see in a Science Museum?
- b - What can you see in an art gallery?
- c - What is the robot called?
- d - Which year is the bicycle from?
- e - Where can you see "Tiger in a tropical storm"?
- f - How tall is the sculpture of the spider?

- ☐ It is nine metres tall.
- ☐ It's from 1870.
- ☐ You can see sculptures, paintings and drawings.
- ☐ You can see great inventions.
- ☐ It is called Bertl.
- ☐ In the National Gallery in London.

2 Read and match.

drawings
sculptures machines

artists paintings inventors inventions

In science museums, you can find out about ...	In art galleries, you can find out about ...
scientists

3 Read and complete the sentences. Choose the correct number.

- 1 This bicycle , from 1870, is in the Science Museum in London. It hasn't got _____ or tyres.
- 2 This painting is in the National _____ in London. It's called _____ in a Tropical Storm.
- 3 You can play Rock, _____ , scissors with this robot in the Science _____ in London.

