

6 VIDEO LISTENING

- a Watch the documentary The history of the weekend. Mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).
- 1 In the 19th century Manchester was the home of the cotton industry. True or False
 - 2 Until 1843 factory workers only had Sundays free. True or False
 - 3 Then Robert Lowes and some other men asked factory owners to give their workers all day Saturday off too. True or False
 - 4 One reason why they wanted people to have more free time was so that they could go shopping. True or False
 - 5 The factory owners agreed to close their factories at 3 o'clock on Saturdays. True or False
 - 6 People started to relax more and play more sports. True or False
 - 7 St Mark's football club was started, which later became Manchester United. True or False
 - 8 By the 1950s most people had a two-day weekend. True or False
 - 9 In the 1990s shops started to open on Sundays. True or False
 - 10 Most British workers think a three-day weekend wouldn't make people happier. True or False

