

Picture Analysis: (2)

It is a hot summer's day. yes/no

A group of adults are in the pool. yes/no

The paddling pool is very big. yes/no

The shed next to the pool is green. yes/no

There is a yellow ball next to the trees. yes/no

All the children are raising their arms. yes/no

They all have dark hair. yes/no

The children are busy. yes/no

There is a lot of coloured paper. yes/no

One boy is wearing a red t-shirt. yes/no

There is a painting of a horse on the wall. yes/no

All the children are sat on chairs. yes/no

A teacher is sat helping them. yes/no

The tables are white. yes/no

These children are having lunch. yes/no

They are eating burgers and chips. yes/no

One child has an orange in his hand. yes/no

All the children have a drink. yes/no

They have finished their food. yes/no

There isn't any fruit on their tray. yes/no

Two girls have long hair. yes/no

This is a little boy's birthday. yes/no

The room is decorated nicely. yes/no

There is only cake on the table. yes/no

Everyone is wearing a party hat. yes/no

One girl is dressed as a clown. yes/no

There are seven plastic cups. yes/no

All the children are sitting down. yes/no

MR CHRISTMAS AND HIS WIFE MARY

About two thousand people in the UK have the surname Christmas. In fact, there is a Mr Christmas in our street, Moorhead Street. Mr Christmas lives at number nine. He is a nice man. He is married. Mr and Mrs Christmas have two children. They also have a cat and a dog. Mr Christmas's first name is Jack. He works in a factory. He is a supervisor. He is slim. He has black hair and a short beard. He does not look like Father Christmas! Sometimes, people make fun of his name. 'How is Rudolph?' 'Do you want some carrots for your reindeer?' 'Is it cold in Lapland?' These are some of the questions they ask

Mr Christmas. He never gets cross. He smiles. Mrs Christmas is a teacher. People make fun of her, too. Her name is Mary. At Christmas, people say: 'Merry Christmas, Mary Christmas!' And they laugh. They think it is very funny. 'Oh dear, here we go again!' she thinks. But she laughs. Mr and Mrs Christmas are very good sports and they have a great sense of humour. At Redcliffe school Christmas fair, where Mary works, they get dressed up and they go as - Mr and Mrs Christmas, of course.

Are the sentences TRUE or FALSE?

- a. Nobody in the UK has the surname Christmas. T/F
- b. Mr Christmas lives at 9 Moorhead Street. T/F
- c. He is single. T/F
- d. He has two children and two dogs. T/F
- e. His first name is Jack. T/F
- f. Sometimes, people joke about his name. T/F
- g. He gets really angry when people make fun of his name. T/F
- h. His wife is called Merry Christmas. T/F
- i. She laughs when people say 'Merry Christmas, Mary Christmas'. T/F
- j. They go to the Christmas fair dressed up as Dracula and Lady Dracula. T/F

Answer the questions in full sentences:

1. How many people in the UK have the surname Christmas?

2. What is Mr Christmas's address?

3. What is his first name?

4. How many children have they got?

5. What pets have they got?

6. What does Mr Christmas look like?

7. Where does he work?

8. What does Mr Christmas do when people ask him silly questions?

9. What is Mrs Christmas's first name?

10. What is her job?

11. What does Mary do when they say 'Merry Christmas Mary Christmas'?

12. Who do they get dressed up as at the Christmas Fair?
