

SAMPLES

Going to School

Joy was walking to school in the morning. She was a little late. "I must hurry," said Joy. Then a car stopped and a door opened. It was Joy's best friend Tina asking if she wanted a ride. Joy said yes and hopped inside.

SAMPLE A

Where does this story take place?

- At a house
- On a street
- At a school
- In a parking lot

SAMPLE B

The boxes show some things that happened in the story.

Joy was walking to school.

Joy hopped inside the car.

Which of these belongs in the empty box?

- The school bell rang.
- Joy asked for a ride.
- A door opened.
- Joy said she was late.

Park Rules

Help make our park a safe, clean place for everyone. We ask visitors to follow six simple rules:

1. Put all trash in garbage cans.
2. Keep pets on leashes.
3. Clean up after your pets.
4. Ride bikes only on the bike paths.
5. Children should be accompanied by an adult.
6. Do not leave food on the picnic tables. It attracts wild animals.

1 These rules tell how to —

- find a place
- win a game
- keep a place safe
- play a simple game

3 You do not need rules 2 and 3 if you —

- walk your pet without a leash
- leave your pet at home
- feed your pet picnic scraps
- keep your pet away from children

2 You will need rule 6 if you —

- are with a child
- ride a bike
- have a picnic
- have a pet

Earth Day

I like holidays. They are special days. Today is my favorite holiday. It is called Earth Day. It is a day to celebrate the Earth. People all over the world celebrate Earth Day. They do different things. They sing, dance, and hold parades. My family hikes on Earth Day. We pack a lunch and pick a trail. We hike all day. Everywhere we look we see the Earth's beauty. We celebrate the Earth's beauty on Earth Day.

4 This story was written mainly to —

- show how to do something
- tell what a family does on one day
- get you to try something new
- tell what a special place looks like

5 This family celebrates Earth Day with a —

- game
- dance
- hike
- parade