2. Let's read!

First of all, He knows I don't like him. Sometimes he gives me an evil look and curls his top lip back to show me his teeth. The message is clearly, "Someday I'm going to bite you."

Another reason is that he sheds everywhere. Every surface in our home is covered with Punch hair. I spend more time brushing it off my clothes than I do mowing the lawn.

People in my family love our dog Punch. However, I have several reason for wanting to get rid of Punch.

Last of all, Punch is an early riser, while I'm not. He will start barking and whining to go outside at 7 a.m. , and it's my job to take care of him.

When I told my family that I had a list of good reasons for getting rid of Punch, they said that they would make up a list of reasons to get rid of me.
