Listening p98 2 and 3 73

Man: Hey! What are you 1)_____ next weekend? Are you looking 2)_____ something different to do? Then go wild and come to Green Forest Wildlife Centre. You'll have a great time!

Woman: That's right. At Green Forest Wildlife Centre we've got hundreds of 3)_____ animals for you to meet. Drive your car round our Road Safari and you'll see lions, tigers, elephants, camels, and giraffes. Keep your windows 4)_____ though – you won't want to become the lions' lunch!

Man: And after that, walk around the Foot Safari. You'll love meeting the monkeys, penguins and, er, snakes. Don't 5)_____ about the weather. We'll always have something interesting for you to do, indoors or outdoors, in the sun, rain or wind! You'll find four different restaurants, and five different shops. And you can even go for a relaxing 6)_____ on our old train.

Woman: And what about endangered species, those animals that will need our help in the future just to 7)_____? At Green Forest Wildlife Centre we're helping to look 8)_____ giant pandas, tigers, polar bears and Asian elephants. You'll see them all here at Green Forest Wildlife Centre.

Man: And on the 20th of March 9)_____ a new section of the Wildlife Centre – the Really Radical Reptile Room – with some new, seriously big alligators and crocodiles. TV explorer Jenny Smith is coming to open it and you'll have the opportunity to meet her and ask her 10)_____ about her new TV series.

Woman: We're open seven days a week, from ten am to five pm. The price for children between 3 and 15 is just £12, adults between 11)_____ pay £17. There's also a family ticket for just £50.

Man: What?! You aren't doing anything 12)_____ next weekend? Then come to Green Forest Wildlife Centre and have a wild day out that you won't 13)_____!

LIVEWORKSHEETS