Hi, I'm Sophie! I live in London in the UK. Me and my friends all go to the same school. This year our class project is to write blogs for the School website. My blog is about living in London. Every week, I blog about something different. This week is The Shard! That's a really tall skyscraper. Have you got skyscrapers where you live?

Hi, I'm Oliver. My blog is about the birds and animals that live in the city. I'm very lucky because my house has got a garden. Different birds and animals come to the garden. There are squirrels, hedgehogs and sometimes foxes and lots of different insects.

Hello! I'm Charlotte. My favourite hobby is photograph and that's what my blog is about. I take photos with a digital camera. My favourite photos are of people. I like nature photos too, especially sunsets!

Hi! My name's Harry. My blog is about sports. This year I'm on the school basketball team. I love swimming and football too and my favourite team is Juventus! They visited London last year and played against Arsenal. They were brilliant!
