

作答方式: 直接將答案按照順序寫於 ANS 旁的空白欄

範例: ANS: ABCDEFGH

1. International Women's Day falls on March 8th. It is a day (1) to all women in the world. It was first celebrated on February 28th, 1909. Two years later, it was (2) that the holiday be celebrated every year. The (3) of this day is to promote equal rights for women. When it began, women were (4) of the right to vote. Moreover, most men (5) women's right to work. Decades later, after the United Nations General Assembly declared March 8th to be International Women's Day, it gained worldwide popularity.

There are many (6) for celebrating this special day for women, and for men, too. First, men should keep in mind what a(n) (7) it is to have good women among them. One way to honor them would be to simply try doing what so many women have to do on a daily basis, such as buying (8), preparing food, or doing housework. Through his experience men could learn to appreciate women more.

(A) blessing (B) necessities (C) proposed (D) deprived (E) options (F) dedicated (G) opposed (H) purpose

ANS:

2. Cyber bullying is a serious problem. It can have an impact on people of any age, children, teens and adults (1). Someone who is bullied online tends to feel alone when he or she keeps reading (2) words about themselves. If you are worried that a loved one might be suffering from harassment by strangers online, the following signs can be helpful. First, a victim of cyberbullying may be (3) a lot of time alone. Second, he or she may (4) to stay away from school or work. Third, weight loss or a changing appearance may be noticeable. It is certain that more needs to be done to protect people. They need to be protected from online bullying (5) tragic events can be avoided. There is even the danger that they may (6) themselves. Cyber bullying really needs to be taken seriously.

(A) spending (B) so that (C) harm (D) included (E) try hard (F) horrible
--

ANS:

3. As the fox asked, the little prince tamed it. However, time flies. With the moment of the prince's (1) approaching, the fox felt like crying. When it was (2) cry, the little prince said that it was all the fox's fault. And he thought taming did it (3). The fox did not agree with him, encouraging the little prince to go look at the roses again so that he could realize his was (4). Then the fox would (5) a secret with him as a present.

When the little prince saw the thousands of roses again, he said to them: "You are not like my rose (6). You are like my fox when I first met him. He was just like all other foxes. But I made (7) with him, and now he is one of a kind." Then he went back to the fox. As it had (8), the fox told the little prince its secret: What is (9) cannot be seen. Only with the heart can it be (10). It was the time the little prince has wasted on his rose that made his rose so important.

(A) about to (B) connections (C) at all (D) unique (E) departure (F) visible (G) share (H) essential (I) promised (J) no good

ANS:

4. The Recycled Orchestra was founded in Cateura and gradually won worldwide fame. The place where the orchestra was formed had been known as "(1) on earth." People wanted to change this, and Favio Chávez agreed to help. Years ago, it caught the (2) of a team of filmmakers whose leader was from Paraguay. Inspired by the orchestra, the leader made a short (3) about it. Not only did the video raise money, but it also made the orchestra well known. Since then, the orchestra has had many chances to perform (4). Nowadays, all kids from Cateura are (5) to join the orchestra.

The success of the orchestra went (6) all expectations. In addition to (7) enough money for the members and their families to live on, the children have won respect from all over the world. Moreover, the children are also grateful for the education they (8). In fact, before the orchestra became famous, some children were taken away from it to work, and (9) quit. Luckily, now the children of the orchestra no longer need to (10) a living in the slums. Today, the orchestra's success is like a dream come true.

(A) eager (B) others (C) documentary (D) scratch (E) worldwide (F) beyond (G) making (H) but (I) attention (J) hell

ANS:

5. There is science behind many foods. Here are some interesting facts about food.

Many people who travel abroad find that (1) food isn't enjoyable. This is because the low cabin pressure and dry air makes taste buds less (2). Even the noise in a plane can change the (3) food tastes.

Another surprising thing is that bananas are radioactive. It's because they (4) potassium. Potassium becomes a little radioactive as it (5). That is, it won't match the natural radiation levels in your body (6) you eat 10 million bananas.

Another fact is about candy. Do you know why jelly beans look so shiny? In fact, the shine on their (7) comes from a food additive which is called shellac. It is (8) from the waste of an insect in the forests of Thailand.

You don't have to understand food like a(n) (9). However, for the (10) of your health and happiness, it's helpful to learn more about food. So, why not explore other fun food facts like these?

(A) decays (B) sake (C) unless (D) surface (E) airline (F) scientist (G) way (H) sensitive (I) contains (J) processed
--

ANS: