

DATE

Adam: I hate this film, it's rubbish! I don't want to make a horror film anymore.

Harry: Hey, listen! I've got an idea. Let's make it a zombie comedy!

Oliver: I've got a better idea. Let's make a zombie comedy musical! We can all sing too.

Harry: Oh, no! I don't like singing.

Narrator: The boys are finishing work on their short film. It's called Zombie Land, the Musical. Oliver is editing the film, Adam is playing the music and Harry is recording sound effects.

Narrator: It's the night of the award ceremony and the boys are very nervous.

Mrs O'Brien: This is really exciting!

Mr O'Brien: Yes, I hope they win!

Presenter: And the winner is... Zombie Land, the Musical!

1 How often do the boys go to the cinema? _____

2 Why isn't Adam happy at the beginning of the story?

3 How does Oliver find out about the competition?

4 What does Harry think of singing?

5 Who records the sound effects for the film?

6 How do the boys feel at the ceremony?
