--------------------	---------------	-----	---------

A: Hi! Where are you going?

B: I'm taking the train home. What did you think of the exams?

A: They were OK. What subjects are you taking next term?

B: I chose science because I like learning about the past. I also chose ICT because I like working on my computer. What about you?

A: I love science, but I could only choose two subjects. So, I chose biology and chemistry. I don't like physics as much.

B: Cool! Here's my train. See you later!

5. Underline the correct options to complete Alex's text.

I always try to do my best / good at school because I love learning new things. At my old school, my favourite subjects were maths and physics but now I prefer geography. I study hard / hardly every day when we are having / have tests but last term I did worse / worst than I usually do so I was quite sad.

I know I can do much well / better so I need to study more efficiently / more efficient. I want to take my end-of-year exams and do good / well. Today I'm feeling more positive.
