

EXERCISE 9

Read the dialog briefly and correct the sentence with True or False!

- Aubrey : Hi, Becca! Your dress looks great on you. It fits perfectly, better than mine.
- Becca : Thank. It's my favorite. It's shorter than yours and more colorful, I guess. But your shoes are nicer than my sandals.
- Aubrey : Yes, my dress isn't as short as yours, but I like it. About the shoes, but they're a bit tight... I should have bought a bigger size. Anyway, wow, you have great taste in clothes, Becca. I love sequins!
- Becca : They're pretty, aren't they? You look nice too. That dress really suits you.
- Aubrey : You think so? Oh, thanks! But your dress is prettier. Oh... I will look worse than all the girls at the party!
- Becca : Don't be silly, you look as pretty as I do. Look, there's Claire! Let's go inside.

| Statement                                        | T/F |
|--------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Aubrey thinks Becca's dress looks good on her.   |     |
| Aubrey's dress has got sequins.                  |     |
| Becca thinks Aubrey's dress makes her look ugly. |     |
| Maxine thinks Becca looks prettier.              |     |
| Becca thinks they both look good                 |     |