

Unit 3 Grammar qualifiers

Click on the correct options to complete the sentences.

1. The holiday was stressful, but the views from the hotel were                      incredible.
2. I    don't want to talk about the problems we had.
3. Evan was                                      right to ask for a refund.
4. The airline tickets must have been                      expensive.
5. I agree    with Kevin.
6. The tourist buses are always                      crowded.
7. I'm not the    interested in taking a city bus tour.
8. The food wasn't    the least what I expected

Complete the texts with the qualifiers given.

Fairly

not particular

pretty

I grew up in the countryside in Poland. I suppose it was a 1        nice place to grow up there weren't many people in the village but I had a 2        big group of friends and we always played outdoors. But it was 3        exciting and I used to dream about living in a big city.

Fairly

not particular

pretty

My hometown is a 4        big place, but it's not huge. It's very close to London but this means the facilities are 5        limited because most people go to London for entertainment and shopping. It's 6        cheap to live there, because it's so close to the city.