

Class

Name

① Fill in the blanks with the best words from the box.

encourage	concentrate	satisfied	incredible	private chance	hopeful	difficulty	swap	finally

- You shouldn't be _____ with an A on your essay; you should aim to get an A+.
- Can I see your answers for this practice test? I'm having a lot of _____ with question two.
- Let's talk about this in my office. I'd like this conversation to be kept _____.
- I'm so happy that I _____ have enough money saved to buy those shoes I want.
- Sheldon's going to leave early for the dinner party; that way there's no _____ he'll be late.
- Mrs. Bisbee wanted to _____ her students to read, so she started a reading competition.
- Have you heard Mary Lou sing? She's got a(n) _____ voice.
- I'm getting my exam scores back soon. I'm _____ that I made the top ten list for our school.
- We need to _____ seats. I'm too short to see from here, and you're much taller than I am.
- Please turn down your music. I'm trying to _____ on my math homework.

② Circle the word that matches the definition.

- an amount of money paid, usually monthly, to someone for doing their job
a. attendance b. charity c. program d. salary
- to say what you don't like about someone, something, or some situation
a. consider b. complain c. manage d. disappointed
- sad and displeased because someone, something, or some situation isn't what you hoped it would be
a. disappointed b. convinced c. touched d. tired
- good control over oneself
a. manage b. concentrate c. willpower d. local
- the achievement of what you've wanted, or tried, to do
a. success b. celebrate c. cheerful d. aim
- something you do repeatedly
a. challenge b. aim c. habit d. schedule
- feeling stressed
a. confident b. anxious c. careless d. lazy
- to grow larger or heavier
a. gain b. lost c. weight d. reach
- responsibility for an accident or an unfortunate event
a. careless b. aim c. fail d. fault
- someone you work with
a. colleague b. schedule c. attendance d. curriculum