Sea World is not open at the moment, but here is some information. We are open six days a week, from Tuesday to Sunday, from nine a.m. until five thirty p.m.

Visitors are welcome from April to February, but we have to close in March for painting and repairs.

Every morning at eleven, there is a short film about the sea. Go to the Visitor Centre to watch this. The film is followed by a short talk about the different animals living in the sea.

The dolphin show begins at two fifteen every afternoon, but to make sure we can start on time, we ask everyone to be in their seats by two o'clock.

The shop at Sea World is open all day. Children will like the many different toys and books on sale there. There is also a café, where you can get drinks and snacks.

Adult tickets cost seven pounds and tickets for children are four pounds twenty-five. There are special prices for school groups.

Thank you for calling Sea World.
