

Fill the blanks

The Crusades

The Crusades were historical events that happened in the when the Church took the decision of fight for the holly lands in The ones who fought were Nobles who belong to .

The crusades were divided in regarding to where and when they happened.

The mainly reasons for this were to strengthen the power of Christianity and stop the development of religion.

Despite the loosing of some lands and the great amount of death both parts win in a certain way.

Muslim -8 – East – Middle Age – Christianity -