

Look at the base verb. Type the correct form of the verb into the textbox.

base verb: to be	I a dancer now. She a dancer now too. When he young, he a dancer.
base verb: to play	This year I volleyball on Thursdays. This year my son volleyball on Thursdays. Last year we volleyball on Wednesdays.
base verb: to like	You jazz music. She quiet music. I rap music when I was young.
base verb: to do	They karate three times a week. She karate twice a week. Last year they karate at home because of COVID.

base verb: to go	We	fishing last weekend.
	He	fishing when the weather is good.
	I	fishing most weekends.
base verb: to win	They	the chess game every time we play!
	She	the card game every time we play!
	Yesterday I	for the first time!
base verb: to make	She is clever. She	beautiful clothes.
	They are skilful. They	wooden toys.
	Last year they	a large wooden dolls house.
base verb: to play	You	the piano well.
	He	the piano every day.
	I	the piano when I was a child but I don't now.

base verb: to go	I _____ horse riding on Saturdays. My friend _____ horse riding with me. Last weekend we _____ horse riding for six hours.
base verb: to like	I _____ soccer but I don't _____ Australian Rules football. She _____ Australian Rules but she doesn't _____ soccer. When I was at school, I _____ playing rugby.
base verb: to do	You _____ a lot of volunteering. She also _____ a lot of volunteering. When I didn't have a job, I _____ a lot of volunteering.
base verb: to be	You _____ very good at badminton. She _____ also very good at badminton. When I _____ young, I _____ good at tennis.