

THE FIRST CIRCUMNAVIGATION AROUND THE EARTH.

Look at the maps carefully and write the correct numbers next to the events

DEPARTURE

1519

SEARCH FOR THE STRAIT OF MAGELLAN

1520

DEATH OF MAGELLAN

1521

JOURNEY BACK HOME

1522

NUMBER
	December 27, 1519 : Departure from Rio de Janeiro.
	September 26 - October 3: Stop at the Canary Islands to take in provisions.
	January 25: Victoria reaches Timor and starts to cross the Indian Ocean. April 6: Trinidad which was left behind to under the command of Espinosa leaves the Moluccas heading home but decides to return to Moluccas, his ship is captured and killed in a storm.
	March 16: Arrival of Magellan's expedition to one of the Philippine Islands.
	January 12: Rio de la Plata.
	February 3: They were about to resume their course but San Antonio found to be leaking badly. Halted for repairs.
	March 6: Arrival at Guam and encounters with the Chamorro people
	May 22: Victoria passes the Cape of Good Hope and enters the Atlantic Ocean.
	January 10: Heads toward Paranaguá Bay.
	March 31: Beginning of the overwintering stay at Puerto San Julian.
	October 21: Arriving at the Strait of Magellan November 28: The Fleet leaves the straight and enters the Pacific, some of the crew gets scurvy.
	November 29: Fleet reaches the vicinity of Cape St. Augustine
	September 6: Victoria returns to Sanlúcar de Barrameda under the command of Elcano. September 8: Victoria arrives at Seville, technically completing the circumnavigation.
	September 20: Departure from Sanlúcar de Barrameda
	July 9: Victoria reaches Santiago, Cape Verde
	December 13: Entering the bay of Rio de Janeiro.
	January 24/25-28: Landfall on an uninhabited island, which Magellan names St Paul's (probably Puka-Puka). They stay for a few days before continuing on.