

Moving experiences

Relative Clauses.

- A. Check what you know. Complete the extract from an online review with who, which, whose, where or when.

I've never liked films <sup>1</sup> _____ are designed to frighten me, but Let the Right One In is a horror film <sup>2</sup> _____ goes beyond the usual moments of terror <sup>3</sup> _____ any good horror film delivers.

The story centres on the relationship of two young adolescents: twelve-year-old Oskar, <sup>4</sup> _____ is bullied by other kids, and Eli, a young girl <sup>5</sup> _____ he makes friends with. However, Eli is a vampire and she needs blood, <sup>6</sup> _____ gives Oskar a real possibility of striking back against the bullies.

I saw the film as being less about vampires and more about the insecurities and horrors of growing up, <sup>7</sup> _____ we can all identify with. Some of my favourite scenes in the film are the most poignant such as the moment <sup>8</sup> _____ Oskar asks Eli, 'Will you be my girlfriend?' and Eli says, 'Oskar, I'm not a girl', by <sup>9</sup> _____ she means of course that she's a vampire.

Oskar is played by Kare Hedebrant, <sup>10</sup> _____ is appealing in his portrayal of pain and innocence. Eli is played by Lina Leandersson, <sup>11</sup> _____ sad eyes and gentleness are an ironic contrast to her violent needs. The film was mostly shot in northern Sweden, <sup>12</sup> _____ the snow that was needed to create the bleak, empty atmosphere was guaranteed.

B. Answer the questions about the review:

Which relative clauses are defining (giving essential information) and which of them are non-defining (giving extra information)?

Defining:

Non defining:

Which type of clause D, or ND, always has a comma before it, and a comma or full stop after it?

What does which in examples 6 and 7 refer to?

In which five relative clauses can you omit the relative pronouns who, which and when?

Look at examples 5, 7 and 9. Where is the preposition in the relative clauses?

2. Look at the extract from the review. Select the non-defining relative clauses.

The story centres on the relationship of two young adolescents: twelve-year-old Oskar, who is bullied by other kids, and Eli, a young girl who he makes friends with. However, Eli is a vampire and she needs blood, which gives Oskar a real possibility of striking back against the bullies.

3. Join the sentences using a relative clause.

- 1 In The Curious Case of Benjamin Button, Brad Pitt plays a man. He lives his life backwards.
In The Curious Case of Benjamin Button, Brad Pitt plays a man who lives his life backwards.
- 2 Megastar Zac Efron gives an emotional and mature performance in his latest film. He shot to fame in High School Musical.
- 3 Invictus is a story about leadership and forgiveness at a critical period. Nelson Mandela had just become president of South Africa.
- 4 The film Star Trek was based on a popular TV series. The series has been watched around the world.
- 5 The film is Daniel Craig's second outing as James Bond. It is directed by Marc Forster.
- 6 Adrian Brody plays a Jewish refugee in The Pianist. He is a famous Polish piano player.
- 7 Lost in Translation is a film about two Americans in a Tokyo hotel. They meet and form an unusual bond there.
- 8 The Hurt Locker is a gripping story about the insanity and foolishness of war. It was made in Jordan.