

The Bulls and the Lion

Choose the right verb and put it in Past tense:

keep, help, be, find, come, try, have, use to, do, can

A lion ___ watch three bulls feeding in an open field. He ___ to attack them several times, but they ___ together and ___ each other to drive him off.

The lion ___ little hope of eating them, for he ___ no match for three strong bulls with their sharp horns and hoofs. But he ___ not keep away from that field, for it is hard to resist watching a good meal, even when there is little chance of getting it.

Then one day the bulls had a fight. When the hungry lion ___ to watch them as he did each day, he ___ them in separate corners of the field, as far away from one another as they could get.

It was now an easy matter for the lion to attack the bulls one at a time. And so he ___.

Don't forget: united we stand, divided we fall!
