

Listening B2 – Study management

1. Imagine you are starting a business course at college in the United States. Listen to the college professor and write T (true) or F (false) for each statement.

- a. There are five written assignments.
- b. Some assignments can be handed in late.
- c. There are two exams.
- d. Students have to do a 20-minute oral report.
- e. There are 25 classes.
- f. It is possible for all students to get an A.

2. Listen again and complete the form.

The development of the EU

Grading system	Grades
% Mid-term exam	A
% Final exam	B
% Written assignments	C
% Oral report	D
% Preparedness/participation	F

3. Now answer these questions. Then listen once more and check.

- a. How many per cent of the final grade does each written report represent?
Each written report represents
- b. How are the exams organized? The exams are organized in :
and
- c. What is the format of the oral report? The oral report takes the form of followed by
- d. What is the attendance requirement? Students need to attend as there are 23 classes, if they