

In each sentence select the correct combination of words to make it true.

- 1. A (stop/rank) is where you get a taxi while a (stop/rank) is where you get a bus.
- 2. A (fare/price) is the money you pay for the journey on any transport while the (fare/price) is what something costs.
- 3. (Change/Receipt) is the money you get back when you pay more than the price, and a (change/receipt) is the piece of paper you receive proving that you paid for something.
- 4. A (gate/platform) is where you get on a train, but you get on a plane in a (gate/platform)
- 5. You (book/check in) a ticket if you buy it in advance, you (book/check in) when you confirm your flight or leave your bags.