

We also use verb to be to indicate physical states, for example:

The baby

thirsty

They

very hungry

And to talk about someone's age, for example:

He

twenty years old

I

fifty

Exercise 1:

Complete the sentences using is- are or am a- Samuel                      fifteen b- My friends and I                      students c- My mom                      very kind d- We                      sisters e- He                      a boy f- I                      a doctor g- They                      my cousins h- My pet                      lazy