Match the definitions to the words:

Definition
Major product of a company, which is typically why the company was founded and is well known when data is stored on your own servers, and you install and manage the software to need (someone or something) for support, help, etc. : to depend on one that's no longer under active promotion, but has yet to be fully retired is introducing new ideas or methods; innovative; pioneering Opposed to using one's own server infrastructure and hardware remove from, so that they no longer possess something or have it with them legacy product	flagship product take away	deployed in the cloud	rely on deployed on premise	groundbreaking