Self-Practice

1.1.5 Ask for and make clarifications

Match each question with the correct phrase for asking for clarification.
After that, practice reading aloud so that you can differentiate between the intonation of making enquiries and asking for clarification.

No.	Enquiry	Clarification Request
1	Do you have any ID?
2	Could I have your name for registration purposes?
3	How many people are there in your department?
4	How did you spend your free time in the office?
5	Do you enjoy reading reports?
6	Are you comfortable using English in the meetings?
7	Can you design posters?
8	What is your favourite show?
9	What portfolio would you like to hold in the future?
10	Do you know when the meeting begins?
11	Is he coming to the team building tomorrow?
12.	Are you flying to Penang on Friday?

Answers

I'm not sure what you mean by enjoy?

Friday, you mean next week, right?

Do you mean both speaking and writing in English?

Do you mean Khairul?

Does a stand-up comedy count as a show?

Is using Canva okay?

Do you mean my full name or just my last name?

Does that include the manager?

In the future, you mean next year, right?

I'm not sure which one you mean by meeting?

Does that include organizing my work station?

Is a driving licence okay?

LIVEWORKSHEETS