

Communicate

Listening

Think Why might people give their money away?

A Learn Listening for Speakers

When you listen, listen carefully to identify the speakers. Ask yourself:

- Who is speaking first?
- Who is answering?
- How many people are speaking?

Listen to the conversation. How many people are speaking? 3-27

B Listen again. Read the questions and check (✓) the correct answers. 3-28

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1 Who would buy something for someone else?   | 3 Who would donate some money?   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Sami <input type="checkbox"/> Ravi <input type="checkbox"/> Satomi | <input type="checkbox"/> Sami <input type="checkbox"/> Ravi <input type="checkbox"/> Satomi      |
| 2 Who would invest some money?  | 4 What job is mentioned?   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Sami <input type="checkbox"/> Ravi <input type="checkbox"/> Satomi | <input type="checkbox"/> lawyer <input type="checkbox"/> teacher <input type="checkbox"/> doctor |

Speaking 3-29

C You have 100 dollars to donate. Who will you help? Take turns asking and answering with your partner.

- hospital
- school
- children's charity
- animal clinic

Word Study

D Learn Suffix -ive

The suffix -ive can be added to the end of some verbs.
It changes the verb into an adjective.

act + ive = active

create + ive = creative

Listen, say, and number the words.  3-30

___ attractive

___ possessive

___ collaborative

___ active

___ decorative

___ protective

___ cooperative

___ creative

E Work with your partner to write a paragraph using at least four of the adjectives above.

Writing Study

F Learn Similes

You can make your writing more interesting by comparing things with as and like.

It's as cold as ice in here!

You're as brave as a lion!

My bedroom is like a nest, all cozy and warm.

My little brother eats very quickly, like a shark!

Finish these sentences with your own similes. Use as ... as and like.

1 Our home is like _____.

2 I'm as happy as _____.

3 You're as talented _____.

4 He plays the flute _____.

5 The train took forever. The train _____.

6 I ran quickly to catch the bus _____.

Now practice writing in the Workbook.  page 137