

What makes a good language learner?

Listen to the interview with Professor Percy

Which languages does he speak?

What does he say about the advantages of learning a language?

What does he say about exams?

What does he say about speaking practice?

What does he say about making mistakes?

According to Professor Percy, learning another language...

- is difficult unless you live abroad.
- is most useful when you go abroad.
- can be useful in many different situations.

According to Professor Percy, passing an exam...

- is a passport to university.
- is often a gateway to other things.
- will get you a better job.

According to Professor Percy, good language learners...

- value making mistakes.
- hate making mistakes.
- avoid making mistakes.

According to Professor Percy, you can get more speaking practice by...

- watching films or listening to songs.
- finding people to talk to locally or online.
- doing both A and B.