

Task 1

Choose the correct option.

1. Claudia hopes to have / having / both are correct her own office one day.
2. Do you enjoy to go / going / both are correct to these type of events?
3. I don't mind to help / helping / both are correct my coworkers with their assignments.
4. Michael loves to learn / learning / both are correct foreign languages.
5. I haven't called him yet, but I plan to call / calling / both are correct him later this afternoon.
6. We need someone to make / making / both are correct reservations for us.
7. I've finished to organize / organizing / both are correct the files.
8. When I was younger, I didn't like to give / giving / both are correct presentations, but now I don't mind public speaking.
9. We generally try to avoid to schedule / scheduling / both are correct any international trips during the holiday season.
10. Our occupational therapist recommended to buy / buying / both are correct ergonomic keyboards for everyone.