

Not      Don't      Doesn't

he, she, it

My mother is      at home.

She      often go to swim.

My dog is      black.

They are      together.

Tom is      at the lessons.

In winter is      hot and sunny.

Emily and Tom are      at work.

Sam      have many friends.

We      draw very well.

My friends      swim in the lake.

I      have free time.

They are      friends.

They      stydy together.

It is      a tent, it is belt.

It is      a bell, it is a belt.

Her dog      walk.

Their friend      read.