Look and read. Then connect. There is one example.

Yesterday morning Joe and Lucy were exploring the island. They were looking for seals and tortoises. They saw tortoises. They didn't see any seals. At eleven o'clock, they were sitting in a cafe drinking juice. And at two o'clock, Joe was looking around the museum and Lucy was buying gifts for her friends. In the afternoon, they saw some lizards. The lizards were looking for food. At four o'clock, Lucy and Joe were walking home, talking about their day.
