Instruction I: Choose the correct alternative.

1. Let us all be a happy family and a lot/really love one another.
2. It's great and I like it really/very much.
3. I would very much/really to hear your feedback – let us know your views.
4. We love our parents, sibling and friends a lot/really.
5. It is music you will a lot/really love to hate.
6. I am not staying if you very much/really like digging ditches, you should do something else.
7. You know I like taking care of Tammy very much/really.
8. Did he very much/really love Mrs. Barnett?
9. I a lot/really like their affectionate ways and eloquent wag of their tails.
10. Not only dating – she was falling in love with him really/a lot.

Instruction II: Add the words in parentheses to the sentences.

1. First of all, I married Alex because I love him. (really)
   _____.
2. If he didn't love you, he wouldn't care. (a lot)
   _____.
3. Whether you love it or hate it, do you doubt it will happen? (really)
   _____.
4. Sure, I'd love to go explore the woods with you, but let's forget about my legs. (very much)
   _____.
5. I love the smell of the ocean. (a lot)
   _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS