

In the following questions each sentence has four underlined words or phrases in italics. The four underlined parts of the sentence are marked (1),(2),(3), and (4). Identify the one underlined word or phrase that must be changed in order for the sentence to be correct.

1. When you write the test you must be (1) very attentive (2), then you may be sorry (3) that you maked (4) a lot of mistakes.
2. The new books that the teacher asked to read in summer is (1) not very interesting. I want to read (2) something more interesting (3) tonight (4).
3. My sister is angry (1) with you for your yesterday's (2) words and she doesn't (3) want you come (4) .
4. On the picture (1) the children can see (2) the building of (3) the new library of foreign literature in Moscow (4).
5. My father is a very busy (1) person. Even when he is (2) at home, he usually work (3) till late at night (4) .
6. My younger (1) sister is a very interesting girl. She likes to sing (2) and dance. And now she also sings (3) in the other room. (4)
7. There are (1) a book, two copybooks and three pencils on the table of (2) my brother, but I can't see (3) any (4) pens there.
8. Where else (1) we can (2) find the information about (3) the British Queen (4) ?
9. The task is (1) very difficult and I'm afraid (2) nobody can do nothing (3) about it. (4)
10. The small child (1) could neither read or (2) write and the mother asked (3) Miss Smith to teach (4) him.

