Exercise 1: Choose the correct relative pronoun.

1. I know someone who/ which plays the drums in a band.
2. The restaurant who/ that I'm looking for is called Mario
3. I once met someone who/ whose brother was a famous actor.
4. The campsite which/ where we camp had really good facilities.
5. The man that/ which I saw had long, darl hair.
6. The hotel who/ which we chose had three swimming pool.
7. The people which/ whose house we stayed in were very friendly.
8. March is the month which/ when the weather usually starts to get warmer.

Exercise 2: Decide if the sentences contain defining (D) or non- defining (ND) relative clauses. Then add a suitable relative pronoun. If two relative pronouns are possible, write both.

1. Newquay, _____ is in the southwest of England, is a popular place for tourists. (D/ ND)
2. Budapest is a city _____ I would like to visit. (D/ ND)
3. The street is named after Charles Darwin, _____ lived there for a new years. (D/ ND)
4. Adele is a singer _____ I like a lot. (D/ ND)
5. The cinema, _____ is quite new, shows some really interesting films. (D/ ND)
6. I saw some shoes _____ I really wanted to buy. (D/ ND)

Exercise 3: Complete the second sentence with a relative clause so it has a similar meaning to the first.

1. She is happy with the present. She received it from her aunt.
   She is happy with the present_____.
2. Sam is the student. I borrowed his laptop.
   Sam is the student_____.
3. That's the café. I worked there last summer.
   That's the café _____ last summer.
4. Saturday is the day. I'm leaving then to go on holiday.
   Saturday is the day _____ to go on holiday.
5. Amy is the friend. She helps me if I have a problem.
   Amy is the friend _____ if I have a problem.
6. This is the book. It won a lot of awards last year.
   This is the book _____ last year.

LIVEWORKSHEETS